A Lotus cARTography Puzzle Trail

is part scavenger hunt, part urban orienteering, part walking tour. It's a series of puzzles linked to places, with clues that point the way. You don't need GPS: use a map or your knowledge of Bloomington's streetscape.

Finish the trail by July 16 — and we'll send you stuff! Fill out the tab below and leave it in our box at the BCT Box Office (114 E. Kirkwood). We'll mail you two (2) vintage Lotus pins. Box Office hours: 11am-6pm Mon-Fri; Noon-5pm, Sat-Sun.

Look for Lotus Puzzle Trail #2 at the Festival

An expanded, competitive, pay-to-play version: Teams of up to three people register on site, and puzzle designers Studio Cypher track teams' progress. The team with the most points wins a prize. And part of the proceeds go to Lotus.

..... Want to suggest a site for our competitive Festival puzzle trail? Include it below. We'll forward the info to Studio Cypher. Or e-mail site suggestions to lotus@lotusfest.org.

FEEDBACK:

- I finished the puzzle trail (and perhaps danced a tiny jig).
- I did part of the trail and ditched the rest for some ice cream.
- I thought the puzzle trail was pretty easy.
- I thought the puzzle trail was not-so-easy, but still fun.
- The puzzle trail made my brain hurt.
